SAYS CREEL DENIES GERMAN ATROCITIES

Senator Poindexter Declares Propaganda Is Being Promoted.

CITES CRUCIFIXION CASE

Offers Proof of Horrors He Asserts Bureau Seeks to Controvert.

Special Despatch to Tan Sun. WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 .- The charge was made in the Senate to-day by Senator Poindexter (Wash.) that the Committee on Public Information was engaged just now in an earnest propaganda to controvert acts of atrocttles and other inhumane acts by the military and naval forces of Germany and as serted that it was high time a substantial reason was given for such activi-

He said the often repeated account of the crucifixion of a Canadian infantryman by Prussian soldiers was one of the atrocities which the Creel Bureau had taken upon itself to controvert. He then read into the record a letter from P. A. Howard of the St. Louis Chamber of mmerce in which a story of the atro ty was reported by an eye witness, the

The letter recited that Mr. Howard ad interviewed in Paris A. C. Cole. East Liverpool, Ohio, who declared that he had found the body of his brother, Serhad found the body of his brother, Ser-geant A. #### TURKS URGING PEACE.

Plan to Make Constantinople Free Port Proposed.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 21.—The correspondent at Constantinople of the Weser Ziefung of Bramen says that it must be admitted public opinion for some time past favored a separate peace for Turkey. This view underwent a change as a result of Prince Max's speech in the Reschetag, which also strengthened the position of the party of union and progress. rogress. Proposals are now being discussed Proposals are now being discussed, the correspondent continues, for a reformation in Turkey according to which Constantinople would become a free port and the fortifications of the Darport and the fortifications of the Dar-danelles dismantled on condition that the Powers guarantee the continuance of Coustantinople as the capital of Turkey. It is further proposed to grant autonomy to Arabia, Syria, Ar-menta and the Jewish zone in Palestine. Influential Turkish newspapers con-tinue to advocate a separate peace with the Entente.

a Million to Liberty Loan. With about $250,000 in late sub-scriptions added to the total of the real estate division of the Fourth Liberty Loan, the division posted the remarkable figures yesterday of $10.-$52,850, or within a half million dollars of three times the amount raised for the third loan.

"I thought the faucet had been turned off on Saturday," remarked Alfred E. Marling, chairman of the division, "but when I reached the division headquarters to-day I found another flood."

Brooklyn real estate men must be credited with $1,525,350 of the great total, their work among the small prop-erty owners across the bridge having been one of the features of the big drive. Members of the committee were tabulating the subscriptions by teams yes-terday, and when this work is completed it will make interesting reading for those men who gave up three weeks to work for Uncle Sam.
